

acceptIT-improve02/14/2021

@Philosopher King's Knight you didn't say prove? Therefore: We are all part of the whole, the material, you, me, a rock somewhere... the immaterial thoughts, flavors, God.... Basically its all of the same substance. The difference lies just in groupance. Which is also a reason why @Sinious argument seems invalid to me.

acceptIT-improve02/14/2021

About consciousness I wrote
The Link between the flavours of the immaterial world we link into our organs and the data we abstract and use to request on flavours
Basically a link between the material and immaterial on a level

Master of All Truth & Knowledge02/14/2021

If there are no absolute truths is true, then at least one absolute truth is true.

acceptIT-improve02/14/2021

Whats the difference in material and immaterial? Ehm, not entirely sure, like... density in agreement in groupance.

Master of All Truth & Knowledge02/14/2021

Material objects have spatial and/or temporal properties. The properties of non-material objects are disputed. It's widely accepted that non-material objects lack spatial properties. Those who defend irreducible mental properties will grant that they have temporal properties. Other non-material objects, like abstracta, may or may not have temporal properties.

acceptIT-improve02/14/2021

Whats an abstracta?

Master of All Truth & Knowledge02/14/2021

The singular form of abstract objects.

acceptIT-improve02/14/2021

For example?

Master of All Truth & Knowledge02/14/2021

If abstract objects exist, then the referent of the symbol 'I' is a paradigmatic example.

acceptIT-improve02/14/2021

I don't think that's the case, it's just something that results in the same conclusion from derivation of a net of concepts

But not necessarily something that's absolute

It's probably possible to perceive sensation that does not inherit the concept of singularity

acceptIT-improve02/14/2021

Is the concept of conscious absolute? Not sure. Nature of conscious is to structure the immaterial into more density. And the nature of life, which partners with conscious is to deconstruct lifeforms who fail to do that well To allow them to reform their core in a way to do so. Which kinda sucks By doing so, consciousness guides being to fuel existing

I hope that doesn't get misinterpreted too much, it's a really complicated topic to think through

IMO what does that mean?

-don't screw with wildlife too much -don't get tired of using ur brains

-factory farming is no good

acceptIT-improve02/14/2021

Apparently spirit makes evolution that reshapes being. Being = conscious + life. Spirit = essence that identifies a conscious

KairosVal02/15/2021

::drools:: Damn. So sorry I missed this one when it was happening. 110% my thing. Stupid capitalism with its stupid need to render mental or physical labor for wages to survive. ::shakes fist::

KairosVal02/15/2021

Is the concept of conscious absolute?

That's going to depend on who you talk to. For my take: There's a sense in which concepts can be viewed as being absolute or abstract. You could envisage that there is an abstract space of all the conceivable concepts, and you could consider that the concept of consciousness is a point in that abstract space. But just because you can doesn't mean you should. The real question is: Does viewing the concept of consciousness as an abstract object add anything interesting or meaningful to our considerations of it? IMHO in this case I think it adds more confusion than enlightenment, so I'd consider it to probably be an unnecessary intellectual contrivance. But, of course, I could be wrong and I'd happily accept correction.

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

I think I agree... but I just don't plan to hide my conclusions or limit me from finding them much...

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

To have inherited great achievements but also - and thats the point - past mistakes that must be corrected in us and our actions

...Also I think I need a break to read through any more of intolerance and ignorance at that level... @Papal legate Poope

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

About Poland: Theres this weird effect in human history. Most nations sometimes are perpetrators and sometimes victims, so they try to get along teeth grindingly again. Then there are the countries who were more perpetrators than victims, which tend to do good evonomically, after they have been brought to justice Well because they accept to not be perfect and be humble And then theres the countries who were alot more victims than perpetrators. They tend to get nationalistic.... Theres also the countries that never seem to be put to justice... they also tend to get nationalistic... And then theres countries who mostly just do their own thing and try not to get involved much... What do we even do about this?

The money presents obviously don't solve the issues by themselves

Its not even just a group or nation thing, even on individual level things seem to often go similar

I have to tell a story about myself

I mean I already did

Just for those who didn't read through it, here again;

Short version:

I tried to integrate hard time, people didn't accept me.

I blamed the world

Then judgement came

I was asked how I want to shape the world afterwards

I had a very screwed up vision

I started to feel very guilty

I started to improve when I stopped to live in ignorance of truth

So basically I went blaming=>pride=>guilt=>acceptIT-improve

Imo it was God's work to take me from pride to guilt

Or rather from blaming to guilt actually
But the core of my story is, God seemed to believe it's a good idea to fix my blaming/pride state by making me feel guilty apparently
And get me improving this way
Aaaand how could that be done?
I'll continue here soon when I have a clue...
@Papal legate Poopie btw what do you think about blaming and taking blame; what makes you feel guilty?

Papal legate Poopie02/15/2021

Morning

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

Hi

Papal legate Poopie02/15/2021

What makes me feel guilty? I'd say it's that thing all people have, the primordial vicar of Christ. My conscious. My desire to be just and virtuous met with failure.

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

Well that's something

Is there a way to utilize your guilt towards Christ more broadly into acceptance of a more global past of global mistakes and the ones inheriting it

Papal legate Poopie02/15/2021

inheriting it? Well you see that's where we differ. Some things that you see as bad I do not.

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

Then why do you have prejudice of Muslims

Papal legate Poopie02/15/2021

They seem to me invasive. For instance you could look at a place like... Italy for instance and say why of course that is a Catholic nation. A community of them. Now they have moved there with no real intent of being Italian. Oh! Then there are the Balkan nations

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

Ok ok that's enough...

Papal legate Poope02/15/2021

Imagine living under ottoman yoke for centuries and when you have had time to recover. A few generations of freedoms, bam you must make peace with your former ancestral enemy. They must inhabit your land Yep that's all I got on that

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

Lets say a exemplari muslim would appear peaceful and performant in adding to society when you get to know him; how does assimilation help?

Papal legate Poope02/15/2021

Back

Improved society? Why didn't he do so in his home?
Assimilation helps in that he adopts his new home. Why wouldn't this person want to? Surely if you elect to move somewhere there is something desirable about the destination
You mention it a few times, what's Justice? @acceptIT-improve

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

That's different from case to case. In case of an syrian muslim for example, it could be because our leaders voted to bomb their "homes"

Papal legate Poope02/15/2021

What do you think justice is

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

Justice is putting an optimal amount of guilt on someones concious, that can be transferred into improvement into neutral state

Papal legate Poope02/15/2021

To you justice is a distribution of guilt?

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

Well the right amount....

Papal legate Poope02/15/2021

What of unscrupulous people. People who suspend their feelings and act against all their natural inclinations

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

You mean like iron chariots? Apparently god can't interact with them like that according to the Bible

Papal legate Poope02/15/2021

So it would seem

But that all seems like discernment of ones conscience, not justice

One can also have disordered guilt

In fact there's a term for this among Catholics, ones who confess to things that aren't really sins. Scrupulosity

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

Maybe its just not setting a neutral but a case required standard

The Sacrificial Lambda02/15/2021

the buddhist concept of remorse vs guilt?

"One can distinguish two types of guilt: the first one is simply the fact that one is guilty of doing something, and the second type refers to seeing or projecting one's mistakes, while not knowing what to do about them or refusing to correct them. It is the second type that leads to a lot of mental suffering in Western culture. This second type of guilt is a negative, paralysing emotion, based on non-acceptance of oneself or the situation one is in, and it leads to depression and frustration rather than change or improvement."

"According to Buddhist psychology, there is a distinction that can be made between the feelings of remorse and guilt. If I were to get in an argument with a friend and say something hurtful to him or her hastily, feeling remorse after the conversation would be productive. Remorse does not look like guilt. It is not prolonged ruminating fueled by self-hatred but a pang of feeling that invites us to reflect. Remorse is thought to be a skillful state of mind, a byproduct of mindfully reviewing our actions, leading to a realization that we have said or done something that has harmed someone else. When we revisit our words or actions to experience our sense of regret, we are not necessarily self-flagellating with a barrage of negative thoughts (though, of course, that is possible — and unadvisable — too)."

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

Fine, let's call it remorse then...

The Sacrificial Lambda02/15/2021

You sure like ellipses, huh?

Ok, so -3 times meat Max per month from march on for me for now -milk? -cheese? -eggs? Hmmm... cheese and eggs ill reduce to gastronomy, meaning if a restaurant or something like that uses them its ok +cheese in my hello fresh products I also accept Milk? I'll try to find/get used to alternatives

Basically meaning I won't buy cheese or eggs or milk from the grocery store if I can handle that

acceptIT-improve02/14/2021

About the racism quodt topic: Im trying a more global approach to the topic. Towards Disvaluing of difference or rejectance of max inclusion strats: Theres 3 different cases that I will mention here: 1: The term, that is/has been used degeratory does not have been connected to dramatic suffering yet. Examples term: weeb, nerd 2: The term, that is/has been used degeratory to a group does have been connected to dramatic suffering, but the main group splits themselves of the whole as a result (I'm aware the nazis also split them off, but I mean afterwards) Examples term: jew 3. The term, that is/has been used degeratory to a group does have been connected to dramatic suffering, but the main group does not split themselves of the whole as a result, but tries to integrate Examples term: the n-word In that view, the n-word can be understood to not be so much degeratory because history, but more because it negates the endeavors of the Black community to be seen as equal. What generally is seen as racist in that regard, is not answering those endeavors. By so, I don't think color blindness is the answer.

acceptIT-improve02/14/2021

@Shaman of Pragmatism did I get that right? Hopefully?

CEO of Canada™02/14/2021

Ok when I see color blindness I think of not being able to see reds or greens, so like someone explain....

Starman02/15/2021

If you actually watch the podcast, Harris doesn't challenge Murray's position at all, and actually finds more agreement than disagreement Murray is the author of the "Bell Curve"

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

Whats that?

Imo poverty in certain areas have to do with "past conflicts" and red pill and such Maybe I should elaborate a little... hm...

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

Ok so... oof -parents do inherit stuff to their children -race doesn't have to do with that. I mean the children inherit the race from their parents, but race doesn't push inheritance. Why would race push certain inheritance?!? Im not sure I should go to that ugly topic but anyway Imo a golden-red-river tends to act nice because his parents and environmental conditions. He might inherit biological traits from parents, but not race. So ehm... a race develops based on -how it is treated based on preference -environmental conditions -past karma The attributes of race contain -certain frames of appearance -what logically follows, like uv resistance But not Intelligence, behaviour etc, which is inherited independent of race Imo we have to do with a case of bogus correlation here

The reason why I posted to this topic that kinda sucks is, it might push some solutions Obviously how we treat or even the preference can be worked on. Environmental conditions also. And karma is a result towards future from the present

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

Can someone please say something... I already feel kinda bad just dealing with this topic....

acceptIT-improve02/15/2021

So basically if theres a alien planet where everyone looks exactly identical. And theres a inherited biological trait of pronouncing z more instead of s. And those Aliens are language fanatics. We would probably see wazzarists instead racism and similar conditional effects where the z-aliens have more poverty and whatnot

And the s-aliens would point at them for whatever goes alongside with that, not seeing, its actually their own fault at the root

They should work on their weird language sound preference fanaticism

CEO of Monarchy02/15/2021

I'm just not sure what to say lol

acceptIT-improve02/18/2021

1+1=3?

acceptIT-improve02/18/2021

Thanks? I don't quite understand though

Inhuman Fox Being02/18/2021

You should put that on a T-Shirt.

Libra02/19/2021

You have the Theist role? @acceptIT-improve

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

(I assume you did not sleep considering you posted 4 minutes ago)

Libra02/19/2021

And Spiritual.
What exactly are your beliefs?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Let me see... how to tldr that and not just repeat myself... hm...

Libra02/19/2021

Personally I hate tldr.
Be as thorough as you can, if you'd like.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Libra02/19/2021

Lol.
Perhaps.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

So the tldr is
11 years ago this universe was created
From our perspective

Libra02/19/2021

You believe the world ended in 2010?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Yes

Libra02/19/2021

I see.
Go on.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

So the old universe Manager of the ending world I was in put me here... and he helps the creation of 2 new universe in cooperation with Yahwe

The Guidelines

Current Version:

https://acceptit-improve.net/Files/Guidelines/PDF/TheGuidelines-02-14-_bard.pdf

Ok today, on 2021-02-14, that might be the last update for a while.

I am going to focus on some other things for a bit.

About the Guidelines

The Guidelines are my attempt to define a guide towards a better world/future. I started working on them in 2010 and its

Is this it?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

This is one of the new universe

Libra02/19/2021

Do I download the pdf?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Yes, the blue link

Libra02/19/2021

I saw you participated in hacking.
I get quite weary about those things.
Any hacks on the website? Is the pdf a virus?
Just curious.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Lol did you actually read what I wrote there

Libra02/19/2021

Nope.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

You should

Libra02/19/2021

I will, sometime, if you'd like me to.
However, I'm more interested in your theological beliefs right now.
Wow, you wrote 246 pages.
I thought that was an exaggeration lol.
Question: Do you do magick of any kind?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

The warp I guess

Libra02/19/2021

Warp?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Uhm like acceptIT-improve Today at 12:15 PM So how to we move our arm? So basically there is the immaterial world. In the immaterial world flavours(Ideas) form by value distance grouping. The upper group is sending information down on a value it needs. Like the coordinates the arm is going to need to go. Then the lower groups detail that request, by aligning to the requested value. In the material world, the immaterial world is still in the background. Like a void is not really nothing. Thats basically the keeping the information up in mind. We go with the resulting interpretation or not. Then we stream this information to our organs, by keeping the believe - the force behind the interpretation flow from our flavours to our organs - up So what are we? >>>>>The "Link" between interpretation(belief) and abstraction(our understanding of the underlying reality)<<<<< - The Link between the flavours of the immaterial world we link into our organs and the data we abstract and use to request on flavours

Sorry that was not from today though...

Libra02/19/2021

I find this very intriguing.
I was skimming the paper though, and it seems very disorganized, no offense.
I would love to read it though.
But perhaps, if you're trying to account for your own beliefs, you could have organized it a bit better. Although it seems like you were aiming for a biography rather than accounting for beliefs.
So that would make sense then.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

So the utilization of this warp functionality can be used for things like Telepathy to an extent
And Information gain Syncing up to God to an extent

Libra02/19/2021

Ok.
I think you'll have to elaborate and define many of the concepts you're using.
They seem unique to you only.
You seem to be describing Platonism to an extent.
Would you mind if I went over what you said before?
@acceptIT-improve
Unless, you're busy, then that's fine.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Please continue

Libra02/19/2021

Would you like me to?
I'm a bit busy myself.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Sure I would like to hear

Libra02/19/2021

Define immaterial world.

Libra02/19/2021

What is that?
@acceptIT-improve

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Ok so everything, God, we, a rock somewhere is made of the same substance

Libra02/19/2021

Do you mean the abstract world? Or an ontological immateriality? (Ontological meaning, a real manifesting existence).

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

The material, unlike the immaterial can't be redefined by conscious will easily, because its fixed from above
I count void also in there

Libra02/19/2021

What is the immaterial though?
I am starting to follow.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Sorry I'm trying to find something

Libra02/19/2021

All good.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

YouTube
Veritasium
Empty Space is NOT Empty

@Libra did that answer it enough?

Libra02/19/2021

No because I have no idea how that's related.
Immaterial would be the absolute lack of materiality.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

But thats literally what it is...
Quantum spins are not material

Libra02/19/2021

I think I'm starting to see now.
Your system seems to be Quantum Mechanics made theological.
Yes...?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Made? Its more like the substance that always existed

Libra02/19/2021

Made as in, transformed.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Oh, sure

Libra02/19/2021

Because Quantum Mechanics isn't inherently theological.
But you "made" it that way.
By transforming it.
Using your own creativity.
I also have no idea what the video is talking about.
I'm not familiar with what a "quantum field fluctuation" is.
A lot of science uses terminology that laymen aren't familiar with, and it can make it sound confusing because they don't define anything.
But really they're just unique scientific names applied to existing things that are simply studied.
They're not complex syllogisms that need to be deciphered, but just studied objects, big or small.
I just wish they were more explanatory.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Seems like it

Libra02/19/2021

I'm not talking about you by the way.
You're fine.
I just mean scientists in general.
Do you know what a "quantum field fluctuation" is?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

I would assume its the hopping around of the spins in that box
That you see in the video

Libra02/19/2021

What are the spins?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

A spin is like the current moving direction
Of one of those smallest parts

Libra02/19/2021

I see.

What are those smallest parts?

A part would be describing something composite.

And thus, material.

I know you say it's immaterial, but I'm saying it it truly is, then "part" would be a confusing term.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

I see them as something like "data"

Libra02/19/2021

Elaborate.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Hm ok so let's start from...

We know what the Atomic space looks like...

Libra02/19/2021

What is Atomic space?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

The level of view where you look at atoms

Libra02/19/2021

Ok.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

When you zoom out of there, and go to the material "realm" by zooming out, it has little to do with the reality of the Atomic space

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Its an abstraction, abstracted so much, that it is redefined
The same applies from data to atoms

Libra02/19/2021

So data is looking in further than the Atomic space?
Or rather, further into it, as one would use a microscope to see atoms.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

I guess thats a way to put it

Libra02/19/2021

That's what I seem to be getting.

Ok.

What exactly is the data?

I'm still confused on that.

You can name it whatever you like, small parts, data, etc, but that still doesn't tell me what it is.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Its a set of information

Libra02/19/2021

I hope my questions aren't annoying you at all.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

No they are very helpful

Libra02/19/2021

I see.

Libra02/19/2021

Describe the information to me.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Information... hm.. its knowledge

Libra02/19/2021

Knowledge is taking in information though.
So I'm not sure if that's a good way to describe it.
But I guess I can ask you: knowledge of what exactly?
Is it smaller particles?
Is it motion?
Movement?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Like of the higher

Libra02/19/2021

Divine?
Spiritual you mean?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

At the top level, sure

Libra02/19/2021

I see.
Would you say this information is comparable to particles?
Like transcendent particles.
Yeah?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Particles like quantum spins?

Libra02/19/2021

I'm not sure if you can describe a motion as a particle.
Act is a different category than something ontological.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Well I mean its not that we would know of a quantum spin particle existing, its more of a field

Libra02/19/2021

What do you mean by field?
Like energy?

Inhuman Fox Being02/19/2021

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Libra02/19/2021

@acceptIT-improve I've always been confused as to what energy is.

Inhuman Fox Being02/19/2021

I suppose I will have to find out.

Libra02/19/2021

Energy is described as something in motion, yet something existing at the same time.

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

Potential force?

acceptIT-improve02/19/2021

@Inhuman Fox Being Ok so higher realms of theoretical existence? Depends on -that which has a conscious And -that which hasn't I would assume the highest has a conscious and is Yahwe By so it can direct down to reconstruct the values of the entities with a small limitation of values connected to a lower conscious that "disconnected" you know, the "iron chariots "... its more like a brake than a stop though Higher existence planes can skip conscious on a level probably But probably not on the highest, since that would basically disconnect the whole, by so stop the interaction of entities to each other. You can see the effects on a lower scale after a body died

Gunther Zielke02/20/2021

Yes, what makes this ethereal structure you have shown to exist produce less than an infinite number of things out of thin air? If it is a conscience then they're not really being produced out of thin air, they're being produced in some sense by that consciousness. Unless you're saying that the consciousness does in fact create something and all that happens is it disappears into nothing, which is entirely possible unless it is made of mass energy or spacetime. In which case it is not possible. So unless its material goes somewhere outside of this universe or it goes somewhere inside it it would break the various laws of conservation.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

I think a concious acts as a Decider, at least here in this universe It decides in or out
Its literally what I do to control my mind decently

Gunther Zielke02/20/2021

Right, but certainly you can't think that consciousness is produced by anything but reactions in our brain?

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

What? Why? No, not quite

Here in this realm, our consciousness underlies Yahwes consciousness, thats why it has to do with reactions in our brain

Gunther Zielke02/20/2021

Ah, so you're some variety of an Abrahamic monotheist?

And in #🗨️ • qotd-discussion

Inhuman Fox Being02/20/2021

That would make sense if all the "forces" or values acted with equal magnitude for set levels, wouldn't they?

Inhuman Fox Being02/20/2021

I am still a bit confused, but it might just be how it is worded.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Also this and

Inhuman Fox Being02/20/2021

I did see this, but I have a few disputes on how Consciousness is defined. Is it merely presence in all "states" or is it more like a Classical definition? How do you know something is purely conscious without knowing how.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Consciousness as in abstraction of a data stream into perception

Inhuman Fox Being02/20/2021

But different states perceive differently which cannot be set into similar packets or so I would assume.

So is one conscious higher than the other by virtue of how much it perceives?

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

And the reaction to it possibly

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Hm... I think its more what you can look into

Inhuman Fox Being02/20/2021

So if I choose to put a human under full sensory deprivation and then disable there thought, do they stop being conscious?

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Is there an verb to consciousness? They stop conceiving or so
Or rather there conceive nothing

Inhuman Fox Being02/20/2021

I would say conscious is, at best, a realization of what is being perceived. The more you understand, the less you can affect something. The less you understand, the more you will seek to. Somehow, this is the only thing I know which is naturally negentropic. Of course, as with everything else, there are always exceptions. But realization is more than simply knowing and understanding what is being perceived but to be familiar with it intimately. So the more you know, the less you can affect it. Just like the HUP but in terms of relativistic definitions of Conscious Natures.

If conscious can be perfectly simulated, it will end at the same place we are once we give it enough data because it will reach a cliff edge and its desire to know more will peter put the more it knows. So all realizations have a natural limit to them but since there are infinite intervals between any two solid real values, you can always know more without reaching the limit but it will still be very very low after a certain point.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Well that seems like a better explanation of what I wrote, but its kinda what I meant

Inhuman Fox Being02/20/2021

Is that so? But then this is the exact opposite of implying that God is the highest conscious state, is it not?

The more a conscious being knows, the less it can affect its natural state. The expense is not knowing or at least, not realizing what it knows.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Isn't God unchanging? Highest conscious state hm... that doesn't contradict it? Right?

Inhuman Fox Being02/20/2021

Yeah, that is a presupposition. How do you know if consciousness (like often observed in humans [the only definite conscious beings I know of]) isn't fluid?

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Oh wait... yeah I said abstraction.. nvm I think I get your point

Inhuman Fox Being02/20/2021

And it does contradict it. If data is purely just raw and unprocessed values, the being grouping it is like, in computers, would only be of a certain capacity and has one function that doesn't change the values themselves. In here, you are substituting God with the Machine doing the sorting and not the person that is defining those values (which are, as far as we know, universally constant)

So which one is God? If it is both, that defeats the purpose of having data in the first place and more likely than not, solidifies certain opinions that say God is dreaming the universe in his head but lucidly. Kind of like Azathoth.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Ok impressive conclusion, thanks

Inhuman Fox Being02/20/2021

Perhaps you could...I dunno, shed some light onto those conclusions? I am not defining anything outside of what you generally laid down. I would like to talk more about the data values themselves.

Are they uniform or relative in definition, purpose and structure?

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Yeah but I concluded the top conscious wrong and you showed me

Inhuman Fox Being02/20/2021

Exactly. There is always an alternative that will break my argument, right. So if you are right, which you are, you should be able to tell me what exactly is the Conscious Value of God or whatever can be assigned to it. I would say levels will do quite well.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Ok I think I take my time answering instead of making a fool out of me..

Inhuman Fox Being02/20/2021

Of course. You actually make sense, lol. I just have a lot of questions more than I have arguments against the ideas themselves.

Dw, you are doing fine.

I mean theres Yahwe, the Lord, the Holy spirit, the Father, the son I think I finally got to understand

acceptIT-improve02/21/2021

Gajendra02/21/2021

Ok, well the first chapter of the Manusmriti is not talking about Jesus.

acceptIT-improve02/21/2021

Why are there religious tensions and wars when they basically all say the same thing

Gajendra02/21/2021

It talks about God and stuff but not Jesus, since Jesus is not recognized in Hindu scriptures since they were written long before Jesus.

Gajendra02/21/2021

1) They want to prove themselves to be right 2) There are some differences between religions

acceptIT-improve02/21/2021

Sorta complicated, but it could be manu...
Or what would 1.33 talking about otherwise?

Libra02/21/2021

They don't, that's the thing.
We have very different theologies.
Moral teaching might be the same thing in a sense, but metaphysics, epistemology, all that is different.

acceptIT-improve02/21/2021

You can say "I am eating dinner tonight" and "theres plenty food for me after evening" They are different in detail, but the basic information is the same.

acceptIT-improve02/21/2021

How? Isn't it just what I posted above + creation of 2 universe after time x?

What do you think about The indicator of faith is the ability to process without self reflection
From The ability to manage beliefs It would be What results of that To process from everything
Also I think with that I found the final level

Reason: using the ability of conclusion from available evidence and theoretical estimations of probability of possibilities
Experience: personal events one has perceived used as evidence
Personal advantage: choice per what seems more profitable or useful Something like that...

Is the mind outside the body?

acceptIT-improve02/23/2021

You can imagine 3,4,5 being linked to each body to its side On view of being left

acceptIT-improve02/23/2021

For animals

Basically those animals need a method to contribute in life

So pigs are not ok unless you drink pig milk, lol acceptIT-improveToday at 11:02 AM

To be honest I worked a long time on taming down the flames... Refining my emotions should help... I tried to dive before and this came out of it: Yama is you because ambitious world eating continues.. You at hand hope towards undergoing metamorphosis, continue to strife into something better. Therefore global hope is at hand. There are forces that look up ahead helping them to go beyond the circles of hate. Then there is the ones afraid to not get their place. Jealous of groups profiting of new agreements. This ethereal question how do you handle the ones who do not accept Acceptance. In reality you undergo the same process. Reflect upon agreement, represent you, because of you

Inhuman Fox BeingYesterday at 7:46 PM

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

@Khow Well generally, and also when looking at Jesus on the cross, you blame yourself to be good, or others to become evil. Its obvious which road Hitler took, what about yourself?

You chose, because thats what consciousness do to structurize. You decide in or out. On everything. That on everything which didn't get in is assumed evil.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Yours is like the nazis on the door scenario... you get so absorbed into the question at hand, that you fail to see the surrounding truth. What Caused the Question at hand. Will you solve it yourself? Do you transform evil into good? Or the opposite? If you still wonder about Hitler being a Christian, he certainly wasn't in his heart. Its not about IF you believe, but about HOW Oh I won't say "What the last 3 words were" because not everyone swings the hammer of fear.

So was the Cause blaming others or not?

Without having read it, was his book about blaming others?

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Its like How much tolerance towards in and out onto outwards do you give How much tolerance towards in and out onto inwards do you give Christs is outwards to the max, but gently guide to the better Inwards towards no tolerance of not meeting the purpose of will As Hitler did Inwards towards max tolerating not meeting purpose of will Outwards min tolerance and slowly guiding towards degress

Obviously Inwards is the realm of your mind and outwards reality

And we are talking what decisions you make... what flavours you accept or not

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Its a school of thought, with a test at the end. Is math trash because some cant calculate?

acceptIT-improve01/17/2021

Happiness and sadness and pain and pleasure are merely guiding posts. There is a person who does not feel pain due to a genetic disorder. Do you think he leads a happy life? What do you guess? In fact, he has broken his bones accidentally like a 1000 Times and is almost incapable of moving. Pain is 1. Informative. 2. Because we are stupid, and tend to not put enough weight to its importance, it can pressure us to alignment. So its like a organ is talking to us: Hey this is not ok => emitting pain to us to make us stop or correct our treatment of the organ So what about sadness and pleasure? Happiness and depression? Our subconscious is like the library of all that we have taken in us in terms of information and impressions. Sadness and pleasure are like the short term feedback of our subconsciousness. While General Happiness and depression is the actual State your Mind is different. General Happiness is like saying "hey everything's fine". While depression is more like a challenge. The thing is from suffering we can grow. The correct thing to do is change the way your thinking. Whenever a flavour appears in our brain, we already make a decision. Go about it in good ways or bad ways. @ThatGuyStanding challenge the way you are thinking. I know its difficult.

I just put the question somewhere: Is religion false because the ones who don't get to comprehend it right Is math false if you can't calculate right

Doomsmau02/20/2021

Religion is not false even if one does not comprehend it. But it is false if it stops being true today.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

What can something stop to be true?
Imo only God can

AmariBot

BOT02/20/2021

@acceptIT-improve
acceptIT-improve
CONGRATS You are now level 23!!!

Atheism

Doomsmau02/20/2021

The creator can be true today as it has been in the past. The only way it can stop being true if there is evidence beyond a doubt that he is unable to exist.

Which there is not, I would argue there is more pointing to a God than to a lack of one, but that is my view.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Evidence or proof does not make something true, and it doesn't make something untrue
It just shows something

Doomsmau02/20/2021

Sure it shows something.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

So what you wrote

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Imo
That's impossible to happen

Doomsmau02/20/2021

No if something is proven false it just is false. Facts outweigh superstition or beliefs 100 percent of the time.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

But what you wrote is impossible to happen logically

Doomsmau02/20/2021

How so? Do you see evidence for the existence to be false? If so I am all ears, in fact I am in a few Christian servers that if their faith is false would become atheist.

But it has to be beyond a shadow of a doubt, else our view of God is equally acceptable as the lack of one.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

No what I'm saying: -Something that has shown the ability to exist and is certainly true =>cannot be certainly false, the proof would be

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Therefore, and the conceptual reality being shown proofs it certainly Christ being true. The only thing that could be false is error in record We have -a conceptual record -a proof of concept I don't see how it couldn't be true

Doomsmau02/20/2021

Sure, I see that I see the proof being overwhelmingly for Christ. Atheist recognize he exist but doubt his divinity, this is reasonable. The proof of Christ death would be enough for many people but we do not have his death shaul anymore.

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Divinity is a thing of merit from the right places.

Doomsmau02/20/2021

Are you talking about merit in character?

acceptIT-improve02/20/2021

Merit in what you CAN be

Intelligence is the ability to aquire wisdom from using methodic research of existing Wisdom, or creating anew, from methodic use of spirituality 3.1 Knowledge is wisdom with acceptance and often inclusion of the "how" 3.2 Science is a tool to make Knowledge out of wisdom using methodic processes 3.3 Theology is a science of handling Faith and Spiritualism into the ethereal

Yesterday at 6:22 PM

Beliefs can only be accepted on individual level, each person manages them on their own per faith

Yesterday at 6:23 PM

But I'd guess you meant tolerated?

Yesterday at 6:29 PM

Its a difference if you accept a person or accept their beliefs as your own Accepting a person means to give them a place in your heart, or, less fancy Choosing "to give them time and attention and goodwill when they request so" because everyone is decent enough

Thats the goal

Yesterday at 6:34 PM

Imo they are compact and on the dot And they connect whats to connect

Yesterday at 10:32 PM

That sounds about right, How so, is by recognizing patterns and getting inclinations from the ethereal

Yesterday at 10:37 PM

This one you got wrong; someone in another server said something like "maybe a system of believing would be easier to understand" And yes, its about managing your beliefs but usually in a way to make them useful/systematic A high level of faith allows for easy adaption or dropping of certain beliefs based on your will

acceptIT-improve

Yesterday at 10:43 PM

Belief as minimization of assumptions? That is just belief out of fear with weak faith. Its weak belief. If it were strong you wouldn't have to worry about assumptions.

That conclusion you did there does not follow.

Yesterday at 10:56 PM

No will can have to do with it based on your faith

Yesterday at 10:59 PM

Thats why your better of using a system on faith

Yesterday at 11:01 PM

Are you trolling now? When you use a systematic approach with faith to have a reasonable set of beliefs, what does it have to do with deception

Yesterday at 11:10 PM

" A high level of faith allows for easy adaption or dropping of certain beliefs based on your will "

Yesterday at 11:11 PM

Its needed to get a system into your total set of beliefs

Yesterday at 11:29 PM

What Spiritualism does, using the warp

Yesterday at 11:30 PM

Yesterday at 11:32 PM

But it shows how the warp works; So how to we move our arm? So basically there is the immaterial world. In the immaterial world flavours(Ideas) form by value distance grouping. The upper group is sending information down on a value it needs. Like the coordinates the arm is going to need to go. Then the lower groups detail that request, by aligning to the requested value. In the material world, the immaterial world is still in the background. Like a void is not really nothing. Thats basically the keeping the information up in mind. We go with the resulting interpretation or not. Then we stream this information to our organs, by keeping the believe - the force behind the interpretation flow from our flavours to our organs - up So what are we? >>>>The "Link" between interpretation(belief) and abstraction(our understanding of the underlying reality)<<<<< - The Link between the flavours of the immaterial world we link into our organs and the data we abstract and use to request on flavours

Yesterday at 11:37 PM

Lets say you are 3, then "another" can receive your inclinations through the "warp"

Yesterday at 11:49 PM

The Inside being?

You need faith to not lose self

The Harbinger of Acceptance Yesterday at 10:30 AM

My definitions are usually Belief is strongly assuming something Wisdom is belief with proof Intelligence is the ability to acquire wisdom Knowledge is wisdom with acceptance Science is a tool to make Knowledge out of wisdom Faith is the ability to manage beliefs Belief closes the is-ought gap, because when you strongly assume something it creates possible actions you decide upon. Both on your body and mind. Remember my warp explanation?

@Utility Monster

Thanks for the title

The Harbinger of Acceptance Yesterday at 4:36 PM

I'm wondering a little about possible shielding from letting yourself being dragged down by yourself or circumstances

Maybe a good Meditation session topic

Imo a thing that helps is - awareness

Whats problematic is, is going without reflection for longer here

Otherwise you might dive into a pool far on the wrongside

I tend to fall for that sometimes for awhile

Those pools are weirdly magnetic and easy to enter... and they suck, lol

The good ones seem to be more picky about their guests...

Pool seems like a handy word here

Like a pool of spirits or inclinations of the universe, To use it for deciding is easy enough To use it for making wisdom is harder

Oh I feel like I'm getting better at diving, at least partly

@Inhuman Fox Being

The Trick is basically to train ability of awareness

Of management of awareness, not maxing it out

As faith does for belief

Your definitions are good, but here I try too keep it small and simple 1.1 Spiritualism is a tool to create reasonable beliefs from ability to manage awareness 1.2 Faith is the ability to manage beliefs 1.3 Belief is strongly assuming something 2.1 Wisdom is belief that's proofed for one on individual level 2.2. Intelligence is the ability to acquire wisdom from using methodic research of existing Wisdom, or creating anew, from methodic use of spirituality 3.1 Knowledge is wisdom with acceptance and often inclusion of the "how" 3.2 Science is a tool to make Knowledge out of wisdom using methodic processes 3.3 Theology is a science of handling Faith and Spiritualism into the ethereal

The Harbinger of Acceptance Yesterday at 5:27 PM

Wisdom is the base of knowledge Wisdom is hey the apple falls to the ground Knowledge is, how the apple falls to the ground... as Newton used science for that

The Harbinger of Acceptance Yesterday at 7:21 PM

Do you know "der Weisheit letzter Schluss" Wisdom is the unit/quantisation of elements in the row of trying to becoming knowledge

- Truthfulness + Openness <= “Truthfulness + Openness” also goes from 0% to 100% - just because even if you never state a lie ever, and don't hide anything it still doesn't mean it's perfect. Don't get me wrong on that one, what I do mean with that, is that you would also have to perfectionize “how you work your communication, thinking and feelings out right” - I'll explain it like that: Stating everything straight forward can hurt people more than necessary. It's better to “work around a lie” NOT by hiding, but instead explain it right. Real Truthfulness means not only to “talk no lie” but also to “not think a lie” and feeling right about things.

Example: „Your son asks you: My teacher is a terrible person, don't you think?”.

Boundary Condition: He's not actually a terrible person, just has a bunch of flaws. You would “in your manipulated state” tend to dislike him, because of his difference:

BEGINNER

- Level 1: You think his teacher is terrible, and state: “Yeah, he's terrible” <= 0% difficulty
- Level 2: You think his teacher is terrible(or something along those lines), and state: “But why, your teacher is great” <= 5% difficulty
- Level 3: You think his teacher is terrible(or something along those lines), and state: “Well... maybe” <= 10% difficulty
- Level 4: You think his teacher is terrible(or something along those lines), and state: “Well... everybody has errors, your teacher also. Maybe just a little more” <= 20% difficulty

ADVANCED

- Level 5: You think “Well... everybody has errors, your teacher also. Maybe just a little more”. You DON'T have negative feelings about the teacher and state - “Well... everybody has errors, your teacher also. Maybe just a little more”<= 70% difficulty or something along those lines.
- Also really sorry if I hurt you with these lines. Not sure how to state that better in a way where it still works well though. To be fair I'm somewhat failing these lines in this instance with stating it like that itself? Have to rethink how to state those. Actually I thought to highly of myself when I stated that not thinking enough of how that would make others feel. That was a big mistake really. That I guess I can't do it just yet right. I'll correct those when I think I can do it right. So basically I've messed up, yes. I've failed this on those, yes. I'll try again and do it right next time. Not hiding my error, now that I see it. Probably have a weakness there, because I don't socialise much. Maybe I'll try to socialise more? Don't see yet how to make that work without failing it in itself. Hopefully I'll eventually see.

EXPERT

- Update: Level 6: The “tune” - “tune your wavelength to others right”. This is not about the content of information, but how to transmit it. <= 80% difficulty
- Update: Level 7: minimize-bias; More than just not having bad feelings about someone, not judging someone on unnecessary things. It's possible to “suspend judgment” about certain things, where you should not hold judgement from your belief about. For example, you dislike flat-earththers because you like science and it seems delusional. Now you could either try to understand them (which means to work on your beliefs in a deeper sense) – OR – suspend judgement from your belief on the matter of the possibility of a flat earth. Depending on the CONTEXT that is not even ridiculous.

<= 90% difficulty

MASTER

- Update: Level 8, final level: no-bias - managing to operate without Self-reflection, then sync up at reasonable times, harmonize into the everything thus maximise harmony with the universe;

Spiritualism is a tool to create reasonable beliefs from ability to manage awareness

This here is similar, but with different application.

(No thats not "spacing out" while you drive ;).... try to write an essay with zero vocalization on your part...just... have the words flowing from your fingers) - not there yet myself though-

You have to see not everything about everything is great. So blind trust is inappropriate.

To Master this you gonna get to know every kind of everything....

If you've tried to write an essay like that, the point supposedly is to train diving.

No better not loose yourself.

No but, its an democratic approach, every part of everything has its say, you are the president...

Every part of everything -should- have a say, maybe not a vote necessarily....

Oh and: Mind your feels

If you dive into an toxic pool, try to counter with more awareness.

BEYOND

- Refined feelings. Feelings can get in your way of Truthfullness and openness. So if you put them under strict control in your improvement Endeavours – The Final step would be to get them back – without regress.

The advantages: You appear more Human and likeable, but much more: Your motivation will greatly benefit.

-This I haven't managed to do for more than a couple of minutes, and not without bias -yet-
